Muwekma-Tah-Ruk
Ethnic Theme Associate Application Description

Muwekma is the Native American Theme House. The 2 ETAs selected are responsible for developing a syllabus that will explore American Indian, Alaska Native, and Native Hawaiian culture through the use of:

- Art, literature, or other forms of cultural expression (film, music, dance, etc.)
- U.S. and international history, politics, economics, and current events
- Social welfare, psychology, health, medicine and other issues affecting our communities

The house seminar is a way to build a community that promotes the awareness, appreciation and celebration of Native culture as well as the diversity of cultures within and beyond our community. The house seminar may be taken for 1 or 2 units, and is mandatory for house residents. ETAs will receive a stipend of approximately $1000 each quarter.

To apply, please submit the following via the online application found at selection.stanford.edu:

I) Please provide the names and contact information of one individual who could speak to your qualifications.

II) Please include a draft of the syllabus (PDF) you may use in the house seminar. Be sure to include how you think you may present the topics and material for this class. This should include an objective statement that describes course goals, reference material, and presenters you may want to teach a class session, etc.

III) Be prepared to deliver a very brief (5 minutes) demonstration of your teaching/presentation style during your interview.

IV) Please answer the following questions:

1) Why are you interested in serving in Muwekma?
2) Since we are a four class dorm, how will you work to engage residents at different stages of their Stanford career?

Eligibility: For details about eligibility please consult http://studentaffairs.stanford.edu/resed/selection

In summary, to be an ETA, you must have a guaranteed year of undergraduate housing remaining. You are expected to be a registered student living in the residence during all three quarters of your appointment. If you have any questions, comments, or concerns, please email Selection@lists.stanford.edu
